No 10.

Welcome to the September edition of the Anglo Catalan Sant Jordi Golf Society Newsletter.

Tournament Summary

A compliment of 36 signed up for the September bash but clearly all quality to commemorate the 153rd tournament which was contested in coolish sunny weather.

The course was once again in magnificent condition with nice fairways and receptive greens... 'Ay, Ay, Ay.....Los greens'... Needless to say everyone appeared to have problems with them. On close inspection it was clear that the green keepers had left a healthy covering of grass, I reckon after close inspection about a 4 mm longer cut than normal which fooled everyone I spoke to. Nobody could get used to hitting the putts hard enough to 'part the seas'. I doubt that 'Moises' would have managed it either even though I'm sure he would have welcomed the opportunity. Still I am assured that they will be perfect for Octobers event on the 25th (Grahams reputation is in play here).

Category A

A very closely contested finish with the top three within 5 points. Simon Green put the right hand side of the course out of play and in doing so put together a fine round of 41 points and took top prize. Rhodri James came in second with 40 but I am informed was on for 50 or so points before the 'wheels came off'. Into third place with some dazzling drives came Graham Nash with 36. Well done to you all.

Category B

An even closer finish here with only 2 points separating the top three. Diego Davila delighted his fans with a 'hot shot' 41, effectively firing a 7 under par round. I am delighted to see in Second place on handicap with 41 points, Ricardo Rovira who also had a blinder. Third place on his return to the foe was Arnau Sallent with 40. All very close and deserved of praise from us all. Let us pray that they are not so blessed next month as some of these deserver souls are getting very near to me in 4th on the Order of Merit (only joking).

The Skilled Golfer Prizes went to:

There weren't any skilled golfer prizes this month which is just as well because there was no chance for me in any of the usual haunts.... and I am sure Simon, Diego or Graham would have won them all. We'll see what we can do next month on this question.

Photo Competition

We will all know Payne Stewart and he is sadly missed by all golf enthusiasts. His second US Open won in 1999 was possible his best triumph beating Mickelson by a shot on the last hole.

The question was on which course?

There was a tie between David Duckering and Rhodri James so both won 1 extra OOM point.

Correct answer was Pinehurst No 2. See the end of the newsletter for this month's competition..

The Order of Merit (After September Tournament -The Full List)

Congratulations to those who participated in the September event and the team representing The Sant Jordi Society that disputed the match against Gary Peers and his team at Hanslope Park all have their extra 4 points accounted for in this month's table. Graham with his knock together with the 4 representational points goes to the top of the table. Michael Robson and Roger Hunger leapfrog Adrian who has moved down to fourth. Rhodri has moved up to 8th and is looking good to gain a spot on the team to play in Scotland (Hopefully some time in May- Dates shortly to be confirmed).

View from the side.

Now this is my 'fun time' as (You will need the key which I sent you yesterday).

My group consisted again of Steve Watson, together with Richard Rose and Jonathan Goodman.

Steve was very consistent but could not quite 'knuckle down' for the win this month. He had at least one 'Princess Grace', Three 'Douglas Baders', and he will tell you at least 16 'Vinny Jones' and a similar number of Diego Marradonas. This combined with my four 'Paris Hiltons', three 'Gerry Adams', and several Arthur Scargills. Richard was firing on all cylinders but had a terrible 'Elephants Arse on the 16th' which cost him dear. Jonathan after delighting in his new daughter managed to 'Parir' some very good shots but ended very much with a 'Michael Jackson'. Importantly we all arrived at the 18th and decided that the round was on the whole a 'Condom'. (Oh, and I also has a Yasser Arafat after the drive on the 15th). Thank you 'Warthogs!
