No 7.

Welcome to the June edition of the Anglo Catalan Sant Jordi Golf Society Newsletter.

Tournament Summary

What a day and What an event!

Over 60 players turned up to commemorate the 150th tournament, among them we were delighted to see seven founders of the event and several very senior members which gave the event a memorable touch and turned it into probably the best organised event to date. This in no small matter thanks to the contributions of Graham and Mike so thank you to them.

The prize fund was magnificent and we must again pass on our genuine gratitude to our sponsors and friends who provided these. They are the heart and soul of events like these and we must support them as they do us. Please take a look at further down the newsletter for their details. You know that you will get great service and products from all of them, so let's give them our support and pass the word. Why not e-mail the news letter to you friends and contacts?

The course was in magnificent condition and we were off the 'real' tees and I think this reflected in the results with winning scores in both categories of 39 Stableford points. So who did it right and who did it wrong.

Category A (up to H'cap 18.4)

No real doubt here the winner of Cat A with those 39 points was I am delighted to say, Juan Maestro (out in 38 shots and back in with two no score holes) whose score reflects just how well he played during his round. His score deservedly took top prize, the really impressive crystal engraved trophy and 21 order of merit points.

Second place went to Michael Robson with 34 points gaining a credit of 17 Order of Merit points and the trophy, well done Michael who is now edging out in front of the order of merit.

Third went to Roger Hunger (who was in my group) with 33 points. He took home the trophy, 15 OOM points and the thought that he put together a very regular round. Well done Roger.

J.G. and M.C got it wrong and must have thought it would have been better to stay in bed...We were delighted to see them and we all enjoyed their company...However, they shall remain nameless and we look forward to seeing them both next month.. All credit for 'sticking at it'.

Category B (over H'cap 18.5)

Again a very close finish with just 4 points separating the top 3 with first place, the trophy and 21 order of merit points going to Josep Maria Sala with 39 Stableford points.

Second place went to Josep Manent with a score of 36 together with 17 OOM points and the Crystal trophy followed closely by Roger Bevan with a score of 35 and 15 OOM points.

Well don to all of you.

The Skilled Golfer Prizes went to:

Nearest the Pin on 2 to David English
Nearest the Pin on 6 to Juan Maestro
Nearest the Pin on 14 to 'Yours Truly'
Nearest the Pin on 17 to Graham Nash (probably the best shot of the day)
(All get three extra OOM points)

The Grip it and Rip it Power play prizes went to (long drives):

First hole prize went to Albert Sant
Ninth hole prize went to Marc Cox
Sixteenth prize hole went to Terry Waterson
Eighteenth hole prize went to Adrian Cox (after heated dispute with Marc)
(All get and extra 2 points for the effort)

View from the Side.

No one identified the photo of Les Buchanan strolling up the 16th so I get the extra point2 for fooling you all...Sorry guys. Who knows where the following shot is...

Now this one is a lot easier. So first correct mail back to me gets the two points.....I'm waiting..!!
